~Sonia Choquette,

Best Selling Author of The Psychic Pathway, Your Heart's Desire, and Trust Your Vibes, says:

"Sprinkled with humor, Life is Like... is an exhilaratingly honest book about traveling a spiritual journey."

~Dr. Steven Farmer,

author of Animal Spirit Guides and Sacred Ceremony, says:

"Life is Like Making Chocolate Chip Cookies is thoroughly readable and full of insights that are told through stories and metaphors. Just like chocolate chip cookies, it should be savored and enjoyed one bite at a time."

~Phyllis from Ohio says:

"I received your book as a gift from a friend for Christmas and I enjoyed it tremendously. I got to the point where I was looking forward to one more chocolate chip cookie addition in the book. Isn't that so like life though? Just about the time we think that is all there is and bang we get a little more to chew on. LOL I loved this book as it was easy to read, yet said so much and it was done with love, laughter and much wisdom. Thank you for sharing your gift with us all. Looking forward to more."

~Kintar from Ireland says:

"When I woke up Tuesday afternoon I spied a package sitting on the hall table. I wondered just where it was from and trying to think, "Did I order something from my catalogue that I had forgotten about" as I lifted it. I lifted the package and when I saw all the labels on it I knew in an instance where it had come from. Before tearing it opened, I sat for a while looking at how my address had been put on it and had a good chuckle (laugh) to myself. Thank you, Sue, for writing my address as you did. Once I did open the book and started reading, my nose was firmly in it. I only stopped reading to get a bite to eat. When I looked at the clock, I realized that quite a few hours had gone by and so I closed the book up for another time, when my eyes were not so tired. I didn't lift the book again until Wednesday night and yet more hours had past by before I realized it was "chat night" and I'd missed it. I fell asleep reading it and didn't finish the book until this morning (Thursday). I have read many self-help books in my time, but none that I could see myself within it's pages like I could when reading your book, Sue. A lot of "self-help" books on the market today are just that, "self-help" books, but yours is different, its not only easy to read, it actually reaches out to people. Sue, you once told me that you thought your book could help me. I didn't understand then just what you meant, but I do now."

~Jeannette Schneider, Office Manager, from Illinois says:

"Life is Like Making Chocolate Chip Cookies is exactly that. Sue gives us uplifting and informative takes on a variety of subjects so relevant to our lives."

~Suzanne Seyfert, Librarian, from Illinois says:

"Sue has a neat way of looking at things."

~Melody from Illinois says:

"I loved the book, and read a chapter a day as kind of my message for the day. Its practical wisdom delightfully combined with humor, and I cant wait for MORE cookies, sugar cookies, and peanut butter cookies, and spritz!"

~Helen from Ireland says:

"There are many books on the market today that are self-help books but none reaches out to people like yours has. It reached out to me in the way as if you were talking to me and me alone. I saw myself within its pages. Thank you for writing it!"
